Sunday September 3rd

Bollington Bikefest

In its 6th year this event attracted over 200 riders last year and raised lots of money for good causes. The main beneficiary is East Cheshire Hospice.

3 races to choose from:

- Twenty is Plenty More of a fun run, the 20 km (12 mile) Twenty gives beginners and families a sense of the occasion
- The Bolly Bash— 40 miles of Cheshire lanes and foothills. But make no mistake, this is a classic route taking in the finest East Cheshire lanes.
- The Grimshaw Grueller
After a preamble of Cheshire lanes and gentle slopes, riders head for the hills for a quick succession of some of the finest woodland and upland hills in Cheshire and Derbyshire. After 68 miles and 5000 ft of classified climbs, you'll be ready for our generous post- event hospitality. Ride hard, eat well.

Eleanor Conway Walk of Shame Tour 2017

Ferocious clubber and party girl, Eleanor Conway has always been a woman of extremes. She partied around the world as a music journalist, ran off to Asia to work for the Triads, made hardcore porn and Tinder'd her way through most of London. Now sober from alcohol and substances she's failing to find moderation and meaning. The Walk of Shame is Eleanor's critically acclaimed stand-up debut about sex, sobriety, Sambuca and the modern addict that lies within us all. 8pm Bollington Arts Centre £12 Over 18s only.
