Bollington
TOWN COUNCIL

following a short Planning Executive Meeting.

Members of the public are welcome to attend the meeting. Agendas are available on the website or from the Town Hall. Please visit our website for a full program of meetings.

Friday June 2nd

Bob Paisley - Quiet Genius - a Talk at the Arts Centre

Ian Herbert is chief sportswriter at The Independent and author of 'Quiet Genius', a biography of Bob Paisley, Liverpool FC's three-time European Cup winning manager. Bob was the quiet man in the flat cap who swept aside all domestic and European opposition and produced arguably the best football team that Britain has ever known. Ian will discuss the man, his success and examine whether a quiet, less egocentric form of management can work in sport. 7.30pm Arts Centre. £7.50/£4

Friday 2nd to Sunday June 4th

Tales of the Town Exhibition

From the 2nd – 4th June, interactive curiosity cabinets will land in the post-industrial town of Bollington, awaiting audience's participation to unlock stories hidden inside. These will be located at several points in the town - Clarence Mill, the rec, Market Place, St John's Church and the viaduct – and each will contain the memories of people in the town that relate to themes such as community, work and play. Collect a map from Bridgend Centre, Discovery Centre or any artworks locations.

Come to Bollington Arts Centre on 3rd June, 11 - 3pm, to take part in our free family day to celebrate 'Tales of the Town'.

Bollington Cross Primary School will be showcasing their very own time capsules in an exhibition to display their messages to the future. We will be holding a free creative workshop to create your own paper time capsules to take home or add to the exhibition. You will also have the chance to get hands-on with the technology involved in the interactive exhibition.

Come along to collect your free maps from Bollington Arts Centre, Discovery Centre and Bridgend Centre over the 3 days!

Bollington Festival Choir Shakespearian Shenanigans

Our tribute to The Bard celebrates the 401st anniversary of his death. The music inspired by Shakespeare and the English composers; high jinks from Henry Purcell's The Fairy Queen, stirring choruses from A Shakespeare Ode by the English Mozart, Thomas Lindley and Vaughan Williams' In Windsor Forest. Solo songs performed by our choir members.

Tickets £12, 18s and under £3 (cons) available from 01625 575554. www.bollfestchoir.org.uk

Monday June 12th

Bollington SciBar - The Case for and against Fracking

Pete Webb is a Chartered Geologist and fellow of the Geological Society of London. After a spell in academia, Peter joined the oil industry in 1974, working as a well-site geologist in the North Sea. Since then, he has worked in several continents, particularly in the southern hemisphere. He now works as a part-time consultant, mostly overseas managing explorations and providing training. Back home, he delivers public lectures, particularly on fracking for oil and shale gas. Pete collected his first fossils in his back garden at the age of 4.

Talk starts at 6.30pm at the Vale Inn, Adlington Road, Bollington. Arrive in good time to be sure of a seat.

All welcome, no charge. bollingtonscibar.co.uk
